

SKWOOSH™

HUNTER'S CUSHION

EASY TO USE ♦ EASY TO CARRY ♦ EASY TO ENJOY

Big cushion comfort in a compact package – wherever and whenever you need it

When waiting or staying still and alert for long periods of time is a must, do it in comfort with a SKWOOSH™ HUNTER'S cushion. Patented TekPad® pressure relieving gel cradles your "sitz" bones for lightweight ultimate comfort. It is engineered to provide comfort and maintain circulation in the upper thigh and butt areas so the hunter/sportsman can spend hours in the field without experiencing numbness. The HUNTER'S cushion is easy to carry or pack. It folds into a compact 13 oz. package that is about an 1" thick. Two built in weather resistant grommets and a carabineer let you hang it from your belt, game bag or back pack. There's even a third grommet for a "quick sit" belt hanger. It's so convenient and lightweight you won't notice that you have it with you.
